

Announcing the FCSfit Project Grant

Sponsored by the American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences and made possible with the support of our donors. Contact smott@aafcs.org with any questions.

AAFCS is pleased to announce the availability of two project grants up to $500 each for grantees to implement an FCSfit classroom or community-based project aligned with one or more of the FCSfit themes:

- Physical Well-Being
- Financial & Resource* Well-Being (*"Resource" may refer to time and/or natural resources.)
- Emotional Health and Relationship Well-Being

Priority will be given to projects that are creative, innovative, and collaborative. The FCSfit Project Grant may be awarded to individuals or groups, though the project leader must be a current AAFCS member.

Grant applications are due midnight ET on October 6, 2017, and applicants will be notified of the decision no later than October 31, 2017. If awarded a grant, the recipient will be required to submit a project report that provides final results and documentation of funds used.

The grant application must be completed online at www.surveymonkey.com/r/FCSfitGrant and has two parts:

1. Applicant Info (Basic contact and membership info of applicant(s))
2. Project Proposal (This portion is a file upload and should not include any contact info in order to ensure impartiality; see complete details below.)

Project Proposal

The Project Proposal must be submitted as one PDF, DOC, or DOCX file in the following order using a 12-point sans serif font (e.g. Arial, Calibri, Tahoma, etc.). The total proposal parts A-C may not exceed five pages and the file size limit is 16MB.

A) Project Description (Three pages Maximum): Give an overall description of the FCSfit project to be used for publication purposes. The description should include items 1-8 listed below:
