97TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE & EXPO

AAFCs Senate Takes Action, Including Steps to Transform AAFCS

Prior to the AAFCS Annual Conference, Senators were briefed with detailed information regarding the proposed Recommendations for Action to Transform AAFCS for a New Era of Action. AAFCS also sent a postcard to all members to encourage them to review the recommendations posted on the AAFCS website. During the Second General Session at the Annual Conference, 2005-2006 President Don Bower, CFCS, and 2006-2007 President Dixie Crase, CFCS, presented the transition plan. Later that day at the Open Forum, they invited attendees to ask questions regarding Senate agenda items.

Here are some steps the Senate took towards Transforming AAFCS:

- Mission – Amended the proposed revised statement to read: “The mission of AAFCS is to provide leadership and support to professionals whose work is to assist individuals, families, and communities in making informed decisions about their well-being, relationships, and resources to optimize their quality of life.” It will be posted on the website for a period of time for public comment and then presented for a second vote.
- Governance – Approved as proposed effective immediately. Streamlines structure of Board of Directors and Finance Committee.
- Membership – Revised the proposed Recommendations for Action, effective May 1, 2007. Active membership will be limited to: “Professionals with a degree in family and consumer sciences or related field working toward or supporting the vision and mission of AAFCS.”
- Structure – Approved as amended. The Preprofessional/Graduate Section is now the Student Unit. Effective May 1, 2007, AAFCS will be moving from Sections and Divisions to Communities of Interest/Practice.

The complete results of the Senate actions on the Recommendations for Action are posted on www.aafcs.org.

The Senate also voted to postpone the automatic $10 dues increase for Active, Associate, and New Professional members for fiscal year 2006-2007. In most states, Active and Associate members pay $135 and New Professionals pay $100.

After some discussion, the proposed resolution was amended and passed as a Resolution of the American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences on Non-Discrimination.

Life Skills Experts Provide Solutions for Thriving in Threatening Times

Joy Paige of Wachovia facilitates “What’s in Your Purse?”

Experts in personal finance, parenting, disaster preparation, disease control and prevention, identity theft prevention, and other life skills presented their research and successful strategies in preparing for and coping with today’s emotional, physical, and financial threats at the AAFCS 97th Annual Conference & Expo, LifeSkills! Solutions for Thriving in Threatening Times, June 22-25, 2006, in Charlotte, North Carolina.

in Threatening Times, June 22-25, 2006, in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Michelle Singletary, renowned personal finance writer, kicked off the conference with humor and practical advice on how to save more money and reduce debt. Wachovia, proud Signature Sponsor of Singletary’s keynote address, hosted her book signing in their booth, where hundreds of attendees lined up to meet Singletary and have their books personally signed.

Second General Session Speaker Robert Douglas, identity crime prevention expert and founder of PrivacyToday.com, shocked conference participants with examples of how identity thieves can easily access and purchase personal information via the Internet. Douglas recommended paid identity theft protection services, like Equifax Credit Watch™ Gold, which alert you to changes in your credit reports. To detect suspicious activity for free, he encouraged attendees to request their credit reports once a year at www.AnnualCreditReport.com and to regularly check monthly account statements and online accounts.

Roxie Godfrey presents "Leaping Forward! FCS Goes Online," a Research to Practice roundtable.

In addition to the keynote addresses, the Annual Conference offered participants many other ways to sharpen their skills and expand their knowledge. Attendees chose from more than 30 educational sessions on Thursday and Friday. Saturday's schedule was packed with a variety of thought leader sessions, a special Wachovia session on personal finance, and the brand-new Research to Practice Rounds session. Conference participants also learned about new FCS products and resources from the more than 50 exhibitors in the Expo (see page 87).

Cifelli Named National Teacher of the Year

Swansea, Massachusetts, with the AAFCS 2006 National Teacher of the Year Award and $1,000 from Glencoe during the Opening General Session. Cifelli was recognized for her exceptional 12th-grade curriculum, "School-to-Career Child Care Program: Pathways to Success," which focuses on preparation of seniors for future education and employment, through a 24-week internship experience. During the conference, WPRI-TV, the CBS affiliate in Providence, Rhode Island, announced Cifelli's award and showed the video news release produced by AAFCS.

The AAFCS Top Teachers of the Year were also recognized for their cutting-edge life skills programs during the Opening General Session: Antonette Carlton of Mayfield Middle School, Mayfield Heights, Ohio; Catherine Grams of Walker Career Center/Warren Central High School, Indianapolis, Indiana; Maxine Peterson of Centennial High School, Circle Pines, Minnesota; and Margaret Sowers, CFCS, of Cedar Crest High School, Lebanon, Pennsylvania (Cifelli was also a Top Teacher of the Year).

AAFCS Launches New Public Policy Toolkit at Conference

AAFCS unveiled the new online Public Policy Toolkit during the AAFCS Annual Conference at the AAFCS booth in the Expo.

Developed by the AAFCS Public Policy Committee, the toolkit is a free resource for FCS professionals and other citizens who want to engage in public policy to improve the lives of individuals, families, and communities.

The toolkit is divided into five sections: About Congress, Preparing Your Case, Resources and Tools, Communicating with Congress and Media, and Advocating or Lobbying?

To view the online AAFCS Public Policy Toolkit, visit www.aafcs.org/publicpolicytools.htm.

Deborah Gentry Named Chalkey/Fenn Public Policy Visiting Scholar

Deborah K. Gentry, CFCS, was named AAFCS 2006 Chalkey/Fenn Public Policy Visiting Scholar during the Association Recognition and Celebration event. She will receive a $3,500 honorarium to help support a 10-week internship in Washington, D.C. The award was established in 1990 to honor of the work of Dr. Gladys Branegan Chalkley, president and treasurer of AAFCS from 1940 to 1942. The public policy internship is also funded by a generous gift from the estate of Geraldine G. Fenn, a South Dakota native who joined the Montana 4-H staff in 1946.
